Delinking of jobs from degrees

*219. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MALIK:
SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether delinking of jobs from degrees as envisaged in the new Education Policy is yet to get fillup in the country;

(b) if so, what are the reasons for the delay; and

(c) by when it is likely to be implemented throughout the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND CULTURE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): (a) to (c) Implementation of this proposal involves (i) identification of jobs and services which do not require a University degree as an essential qualification; (ii) formulation of programmes of education and training for those jobs; and (iii) establishment of mechanisms for certification of skills and competence required for specified jobs. As a first step, the Department of Personnel has initiated an analysis of the contents of various jobs to identify the posts for which the requirement of University degrees could be dispensed with. The Department of Education has also initiated steps for the establishment of a National Testing Service to conduct tests to determine the suitability of candidates for specified jobs. A Project Report for this purpose has been prepared.
